Siobhan McNulty represents borrowers, private equity sponsors, banks, non-bank lenders and other financial institutions in a range of complex financing transactions, including syndicated and single lender revolving and term loan facilities, cash flow, asset-based and other secured and unsecured credit facilities in the retail, technology, and sports industries.

Siobhan also has experience with various lending transactions, including leveraged buyouts and investments, refinancings, working capital facilities and incremental financings, primarily for companies in the healthcare, consumer services, technology, and digital currency sectors. In addition, she represents banks and non-bank clients in commercial real estate finance, subscription facilities, and securitization transactions.
