

Matthew S. Barrett

Counsel

T +1 (617) 248-5204 | mbarrett@choate.com

Matt Barrett is a member of the firm's Intellectual Property Litigation and Complex Commercial Litigation Practice Groups, both of which have been top-ranked by Chambers USA. His practice includes patent litigation, Lanham Act litigation, trade secrets litigation and contract disputes. Mr. Barrett has co-authored articles on the challenges associated with e-discovery in trade secrets litigation and on the litigation risks of nanotechnology. He also has written and argued several successful motions, has participated in a range of hearings in state and federal court and has extensive experience with complex electronic discovery.

Mr. Barrett has been named a Massachusetts Super Lawyers Rising Star.

EDUCATION

Emory University School of Law
with honors, JD, 2008

Notes & Comments Editor,
Emory International Law Review

Stanford University
BA, 2003

PRACTICE FOCUS

Complex Intellectual Property Disputes

Complex patent infringement and misappropriation of trade secrets cases within the technology, life sciences and software industries.

Complex Commercial Litigation

Assists in representation of leading corporations and financial institutions in complex commercial litigation, including patent infringement claims and securities investigations.

REPRESENTATIVE ENGAGEMENTS

- Currently representing multiple software clients to protect their intellectual property through trade secrets litigation in district courts across the country.
- Assisted in representation of client in multiple district court infringement and licensing actions to enforce patent to conformable medical gloves, helping client to recover millions of dollars in actual and liquidated damages.
- Played key role in series of patent and trademark suits designed to protect intellectual property of major health sciences company.
- Successfully argued for dismissal of breach of contract case.
- Researched and wrote successful opposition to motion to dismiss patent infringement suit that allowed client to continue to pursue its claims and reach advantageous settlement agreement.
- Helped revise electronic document review procedures for case team in complex litigation matter, enabling team to efficiently review millions of pages of documents.

ADMISSIONS

Massachusetts

U.S. Court of Appeals,
First Circuit

U.S. District Court,
Massachusetts

PRACTICE AREAS

Complex Intellectual Property Disputes

Complex Commercial Litigation

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

- “Invalidating Patents on the Pleadings Post-Bilski,” co-author, IP Law360, June 2014.
- “Defending Trade Secrets in the e-Discovery Era,” co-author, IP Law360, November 2011.
- “Nanotechnology: Understanding and Managing the New Frontier,” co-author, Andrews Litigation Reporter: Toxic Torts, April 2009.