

Lindsey Spinelli

Associate

T +1 (617) 248-5296 | lspinelli@choate.com

Lindsey Spinelli is a member of the firm's litigation department and focuses her practice on insurance and reinsurance matters. Ms. Spinelli represents insurers, reinsurers, and other companies in complex business disputes.

Prior to joining Choate, Ms. Spinelli was a Managing Associate at Dentons US LLP in Chicago. There, she litigated complex civil and criminal cases in federal and state courts, including insurance coverage, insurance bad faith, and securities and commodities matters.

Ms. Spinelli attended Yale Law School. During law school, she externed at the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Connecticut and was an active member of the Yale Environmental Law Association and the Yale Journal on Regulation. Following law school, Ms. Spinelli clerked for the Honorable Alvin W. Thompson in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut and served as a law fellow for the Environmental Law & Policy Center.

EDUCATION

Yale Law School

JD, 2012

Executive Editor & Features Editor,
Yale Journal on Regulation

Cornell University,

Phi Beta Kappa, AB, 2006

CLERKSHIP

Honorable Alvin W. Thompson,
U.S. District Court

PRACTICE FOCUS

Litigation

Representation of leading corporations and financial institutions in complex commercial litigation.

Insurance & Reinsurance Litigation

Litigation and arbitration on behalf of insurance and reinsurance companies involving disputes regarding coverage for variety of claims.

REPRESENTATIVE ENGAGEMENTS

- Currently representing reinsurers in arbitrations.
- Obtained successful jury verdict for insurer in bad faith case regarding coverage for pollution cleanup.
- Defeated preliminary injunction sought against enterprise computing company relating to software development contract with state government.

ADMISSIONS

Massachusetts

New York

Illinois

District of Massachusetts

Northern District of Illinois

PRACTICE AREAS

Insurance & Reinsurance

Litigation

- Defended brokerage firm in suit alleging fraud and securities law violations arising out of alleged naked short sales.
- Represented white-collar criminal defendant in post-trial and sentencing proceedings.