

Shaina D. Wamsley London

Associate

T +1 (617) 248-5233 | slondon@choate.com

EDUCATION

Harvard Law School
cum laude, JD, 2014
Technical Editor, *Civil Rights
Civil Liberties Journal*

University of Maryland
magna cum laude, BA,
2009

Shaina Wamsley London represents financial institutions, corporate borrowers and private equity sponsors in a broad range of finance and restructuring transactions, including secured and unsecured lending transactions, acquisition financings, working capital and other senior credit facilities and second-lien and mezzanine debt financings.

PRACTICE FOCUS

Finance

Represents commercial banks and other financial institutions in a wide range of finance and restructuring transactions, including secured and unsecured lending transactions, acquisition financings, working capital and other senior credit facilities and second-lien mezzanine debt financings.

REPRESENTATIVE ENGAGEMENTS

- Represented agent in connection with a $105,000,000 term loan and $30,000,000 revolving loan to a public company that designs instructional technology for students and teachers.
- Represented lender in connection with a $25,000,000 second lien term loan to a telecommunications public company.
- Represented insurance company in connection with senior secured note purchases to refinance the stadium of a National Football League team.
- Represented institutional investors as mezzanine lenders in connection with the acquisition of an agricultural company.

ADMISSIONS

Massachusetts

PRACTICE AREAS

Business &amp; Technology

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Ms. Wamsley London is a volunteer mentor to an at-risk adolescent in Boston. She is also an active participant in Choate's pro bono program and the Citizen Schools program, a tutoring program serving Boston Public School students. Ms. Wamsley London is a member of the Boston Bar Association.