

Patrick S. Boyd

Associate

T +1 (617) 248-4014 | pboyd@choate.com

Mr. Boyd is a member of Choate's Litigation Department and focuses his practice on litigating complex civil cases in both state and federal court.

While in law school, Mr. Boyd was a volunteer advocate for the Suspension Representation project, representing middle and high school students in suspension proceedings before the New York City Department of Education.

EDUCATION

New York University School of Law
JD, 2013
Notes Editor, Journal of Legislation and Public Policy

Stanford University
BA, 2010

ADMISSIONS

Massachusetts
U.S. Court of Appeals, First Circuit
U.S. District Court, Massachusetts

PRACTICE AREAS

Complex Trial & Appellate Litigation
Government Enforcement &
Compliance

PRACTICE FOCUS

Complex Commercial Litigation

Assists in representation of leading corporations and financial institutions in complex commercial litigation.

Government Enforcement & Compliance

Representation of companies and individuals in government and internal investigations involving healthcare fraud, securities fraud and other civil and criminal regulatory matters.

REPRESENTATIVE ENGAGEMENTS

- Represented plaintiff in two week jury trial resulting in a $5.7M judgement as part of three attorney trial team.
- Worked with major U.S. financial institution to ensure compliance with consent decree entered into with the Department of Justice

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Mr. Boyd volunteers at Minds Matter, where he mentors an underprivileged high school. Mr. Boyd is also a member of the Boston Bar Association.