

Sean M. Small

Senior Associate

T +1 (617) 248-4719 | ssmall@choate.com

Sean Small is a senior associate in Choate's Private Equity Group. He counsels companies on corporate and business matters, with a particular focus on M&A transactions and corporate governance issues.

Prior to joining Choate, Mr. Small was an associate at a large international law firm where he represented public and private companies in buy-side and sell-side mergers and acquisitions and counseled clients on general corporate matters. Before law school, Mr. Small served as an Artillery Officer in the U.S. Marine Corps.

EDUCATION

Northeastern University School of Law
JD, 2014

Skidmore College
BA, 2002

ADMISSIONS

Massachusetts

PRACTICE AREAS

Private Equity

Mergers & Acquisitions

PRACTICE FOCUS

Private Equity

Represents funds of all types in aspects of capital raising and acquisitions of target companies.

Mergers & Acquisitions

Represents institutional investors, portfolio companies and management teams in negotiating and structuring leveraged buyouts, recapitalizations, mergers and acquisitions.

General Corporate

Provides counsel on general corporate matters for public and private companies, governance issues and mergers and acquisitions.

PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Mr. Small is a member of the Development Committee at Veterans Legal Services.