

EVENTS | 12.01.2022

Adam Bookbinder Speaking at 2022 Boston Bar Association Privacy & Cybersecurity Conference

Adam Bookbinder, Co-Chair of the Government Enforcement & Compliance practice, will be speaking at the Boston Bar Association's Privacy & Cybersecurity Conference on Thursday, December 8th at 4:30 p.m. The conference features top cybersecurity, privacy, and digital law practitioners and business leaders discussing surveillance technology, data transfer and transactions, and the recent U.S. v. Sullivan decision. Adam will join four speakers in the session, "You could go to jail for that? The Larger Impact of the Prosecution of Uber's Former Chief Security Officer."

More information about the full conference can be found here.

Adam J. Bookbinder

Co-Chair, Government Enforcement & Compliance