EVENTS | 11.25.2024

Adam Bookbinder to Moderate Panel on International Cybercrime at BBA Privacy, Cybersecurity and Digital Law Conference

Adam Bookbinder will moderate the panel, "International Cybercrime: What to be alert for in 2025," at the Boston Bar Association (BBA) Privacy, Cybersecurity and Digital Law Conference on Thursday, December 5, 2024 at 1:00 p.m.

The panel of current and former prosecutors, agents, and law firm counsel will discuss the types of international cybercrime on the rise as we head into 2025, including hack-to-trade conspiracies, crypto fraud, nation state attacks, and North Korean employment scams designed to fund its weapons program.

For more information about the conference, please click here.

Adam J. Bookbinder
Co-Head of Government Enforcement & Compliance