Choate Named to the BTI Client Service A-Team 2026

Choate has been named to the BTI Consulting Group Client Service A-Team 2026, a leading industry recognition based exclusively on feedback from corporate counsel. This recognition reflects Choate's longstanding commitment to understanding clients' business objectives, providing practical and strategic counsel, and helping clients navigate their most significant opportunities and challenges.

For 25 years, the BTI Client Service A-Team report has recognized law firms that distinguish themselves through exceptional client service, strong client relationships, and a commitment to delivering value. Based on unprompted feedback from more than 350 top legal decision-makers at large organizations across a range of industries, the report evaluates law firms across 17 objective activities that matter most to corporate counsel.

This recognition reflects Choate's longstanding commitment to understanding clients' business objectives, providing practical and strategic counsel, and helping clients navigate their most significant opportunities and challenges.
