Choate Private Wealth Practice Recognized in Chambers High Net Worth 2023

Choate is ranked as a Band 1 Massachusetts Private Wealth Law practice in the 2023 edition of Chambers High Net Worth (HNW). Additionally, Partners Kristin Abati, Marc Bloostein, Cameron Casey, Kimberly Cohen, Jennifer Ewing, Silvana "Nan" Giner, Renat Lumpau, Geoff Mason, and Brian Monnich are ranked in the Private Wealth Law category for Massachusetts; with Marc Bloostein and Kimberly Cohen also receiving National ranking.

Clients hail the firm and its practice, commenting… "Choate understands the market and the need to stay current with developments…and can deal with the most sophisticated and complex estate planning matters. The team is responsive, knowledgeable, and empathetic…and the service is consistently efficient and effective."

Choate's Wealth Management Group is one of the largest of its kind in New England, and has been working with multi-generational family clients for over one hundred years. The Wealth Management Group serves as an outsourced, fully-integrated family office for sophisticated families with substantial assets, and currently serves more than 130 family office clients in 36 states.

Published by Chambers & Partners, the Chambers HNW guide focuses on the international private wealth market. The rankings are the result of independent research in which hundreds of interviews were conducted of lawyers, family offices, accountants, tax advisers, bankers, investment managers, and other professionals in the private wealth industry.
