Choate Represents BV Investment Partners in Investment in Moxe Health

Choate represented BV Investment Partners, a middle-market private equity firm focused on tech-enabled business services and solutions, in its majority investment in Moxe Health, a leading EHR-neutral clinical data exchange platform. Moxe enables the secure and automated exchange of clinical data between healthcare providers and health plans through direct integration within electronic health records (EHRs), reducing administrative burden for providers while delivering timely, structured clinical data to health plans. BV is partnering with CEO Mike Coyne, CFO/COO Katie Mallett, Founder Dan Wilson, and the broader Moxe leadership team to support the company's next phase of growth and this investment will enable Moxe to accelerate network expansion, deepen embedded EHR relationships and continue investing in technology that simplifies data exchange at scale.
