Choate Represents Guidepost Growth Equity in £42M Investment in Kaizen Regtech Group

Choate represented Guidepost Growth Equity in its £42 million growth equity investment in Kaizen Regtech Group Limited, a company that offers a range of services for financial institutions in connection with regulatory reporting, managing shareholder disclosure, trade surveillance, and research management. The investment, which is Kaizen's first external investment since its founding in 2013, will be used to accelerate product development, invest in go-to-market initiatives, expand in North America, and enhance its compliance technology. As part of the investment, Gene Nogi of Guidepost will join the Kaizen Board of Directors.

Guidepost is a leading core growth equity firm that partners with entrepreneur-led companies utilizing technology to transform industries within application and infrastructure software and tech-enabled and data services.
