Choate Represents Serent Capital in Sale of Davisware to ECI Software Solutions

Choate represented Serent Capital in the sale of portfolio company Davisware, a leading provider of ERP software for field service businesses, to ECI Software Solutions, a global provider of cloud-based business management software. Serent Capital partnered with Davisware in 2019 due to its strong product-market fit and deep roots in the field service industry. Over the course of the partnership, Serent supported Davisware's expansion efforts and helped drive strategic initiatives to fuel growth and innovation, resulting in the business doubling its size organically and strengthening its market leadership and impact across the field services industry. Davisware's integration with ECI will unlock new opportunities for growth, innovation, and global scale.
