Choate Represents Spectrum Equity in its Investment in Poppins Payroll

Choate represented Spectrum Equity in its investment in Poppins Payroll, a full-service tax and payroll service for household employees such as nannies, housekeepers, and senior caregivers. Poppins has become one of the largest independent players in the household payroll market, and this investment will help accelerate Poppins' growth, fueling innovation in its product roadmap and reinforcing its mission to provide cutting-edge technology and exceptional customer service to families and caregivers across the country. Spectrum will partner with new Chief Executive, Nafeesa Remtilla, along with founders Alina Nisenzon and Mike Wussow, to lead the next phase of Poppins' growth.
