Choate Represents Summit Partners in $122M Growth Investment in Stay22

Choate represented Summit Partners in its $122M minority growth investment in Stay22, an award-winning content monetization company founded and headquartered in Montreal helping creators, media publishers and live experience companies turn travel and retail content into commerce. The funding will support Stay22's continued global expansion, product innovation, team growth and ongoing investment in the infrastructure and partner ecosystem that connects content to commerce at scale.
