Choate Represents Summit Partners Portfolio Company Highwire in Sale to Veriforce

Choate represented Summit Partners and its portfolio company, Highwire, a leading provider of prequalification and contractor risk solutions for the U.S. construction and capital projects market, in its sale to Veriforce, a global leader in contractor management and supply chain risk management. The strategic acquisition unites Highwire's best-in-class, construction-focused contractor risk solutions with Veriforce's scale, safety expertise, and worldwide network. The combined organization now serves one of the largest and most sophisticated contractor networks in the industry
