Choate Represents Sverica Capital Management in Sale of WinWire to NTT DATA

Choate represented Sverica Capital Management in the sale of its Fund V portfolio company WinWire Technologies to NTT DATA. WinWire is an award-winning Microsoft partner specializing in agentic AI, AI on Azure, data engineering, and cloud-native development. The transaction marks the culmination of a successful five-year partnership between WinWire and Sverica, during which WinWire more than doubled in size, reinforced its position as a leading Microsoft services partner, and emerged as a differentiated provider of AI-led digital transformation services for enterprise customers.
