Christine Savage Speaking on Legal, Regulation and Policy Shifts in Research Administration

Christine Savage will be a panelist at the National Council of University Research Administrators (NCURA) 2026 Financial Research Administration Conference on Friday, March 20 at 8:30 a.m.

The panel, "Updates on Legal, Regulation & Policy Shifts in Research Administration," will explore the impact of recent executive orders, federal lawsuits, regulatory changes and settlements on higher education and research funding. This session will highlight key legal changes affecting indirect and direct costs, DEI initiatives, subawards, award terminations, and foreign collaborations, and offer practical strategies for navigating the shifting research administration landscape.
