

EVENTS | 02.15.2024

Danielle Pelot to Moderate at the 2024 Hybrid Qui Tam Conference

Danielle Pelot will moderate the panel discussion, “Perilous or Persuasive?: Decision Points and Approaches for Making Your Case to the Government,” at the Annual Hybrid Qui Tam Conference on Thursday, February 22nd at 11:30 a.m.

The panel will share various perspectives on responding effectively to a government subpoena, from important decision points to potential pitfalls, including:

- How recent DOJ guidance to prosecutors influences their case examination, including modern realities of collecting and producing information (e.g., use of personal devices and ephemeral messaging)
- Impact for individuals – current and former employees
- Fact-finding and disclosures – what do you need to learn, what do you share, how, and when
- Presentations – advocacy and reverse proffers
- Data analytics

For more information about the conference, please click here.

Danielle Pelot

Partner