Emily Miller and Marina Pullerits Participate in the BBA IP 2023 Year in Review

Emily Miller will be a moderator and Marina Pullerits a speaker on the panel, "IP in Life Sciences: Developments and Notable Topics from 2023," at the Boston Bar Association's IP Year in Review Conference on Thursday, March 21, 2024.

The panel, which takes place at 1:00 p.m. EST, will feature in-house and outside IP counsel discussing notable court decisions, considerations around government drug pricing initiatives, and other topics of interest to IP practitioners in the life sciences industry in 2023. In addition to her moderating role, Emily serves on the Conference Advisory Committee.
