Eric Marandett Named a 2026 BTI Client Service All-Star

Eric Marandett has been named a 2026 Client Service All-Star by the BTI Consulting Group – one of just 256 attorneys nationwide given the distinction for “delivering the absolute best client service.”

The only purely organic ranking in the industry, earning this coveted nomination – considered the pinnacle of client service performance – is no easy task. Only clients can name a BTI Client Service All-Star, and there are no nominations, submissions, suggestions, or payments from the All-Stars’ law firms. The BTI Consulting Group independently researches and contacts corporate counsel to identify individuals by name, creating a list that serves as the gold standard and is used by more than 19,000 corporate counsel and law firms.

As Co-Head of Choate’s Intellectual Property Litigation practice, Eric represents biotech, pharmaceutical, and technology companies in high-stakes patent, intellectual property, and commercial disputes. Drawing on deep biopharma industry experience and seasoned trial skills, he is a trusted advisor in bet-the-company matters, including Hatch-Waxman and biosimilar litigation, trade secret and licensing disputes, post-grant proceedings, and strategic counseling for transformative transactions.
