Guidepost Growth Equity Makes $25M Investment in Intellum

Choate represented Guidepost Growth Equity, a leading core growth equity firm that partners with entrepreneur-led application and infrastructure software and tech-enabled and data services companies transforming industries, in its $25M minority growth equity investment in Intellum, a leading enterprise learning management system. This partnership will accelerate Intellum's product development, go-to-market, and key hiring initiatives, and enhance its ability to deliver a new class of product targeting the two biggest challenges facing business education initiatives today: scaled content and engagement.
