Guidepost Growth Equity Makes Significant Minority Growth Investment in ClassWallet

Choate represented Guidepost Growth Equity in its significant minority growth investment in ClassWallet, a leading digital wallet purchasing and reimbursement platform for public funds. This partnership will further enhance ClassWallet's ability to help state agencies and educational institutions address the growing fiduciary burden associated with the control and compliance of public fund distribution and management. Guidepost provides additional industry reach and supports go-to-market strategy, product roadmap, and hiring initiatives.
