John Ventola, Alexandra Thomas, and Jacob Lang Discuss Franchise Group Dispute and Rising Intercreditor Suits in Law360

John Ventola, Alexandra Thomas, and Jacob Lang were featured in Law360's Bankruptcy section for their analysis of the high stakes inter-lender disputes in In re: Franchise Group Inc., a complex Chapter 11 case involving nearly $2 billion in secured debt.

The article, "Franchise Group Dispute Reflects Rising Intercreditor Suits," examines the escalating battles between first- and second-lien lenders, including a pivotal fight over a $158.4 million superpriority claim, and how these conflicts are reshaping strategies in intercreditor agreements and restructuring negotiations.
