EVENTS | 05.05.2026

Mark Silva to Moderate Highly Anticipated TMA Northeast ABL Panel Discussion

Mark Silva will moderate the Turnaround Management Association (TMA) Northeast Chapter's Annual ABL Panel on May 14, 2026.

One of the year's most highly anticipated ABL events, the panel brings together professionals from across the ABL industry to share their perspectives on current developments, key challenges, and the future outlook. In addition to Mark, this year's panelists include Mike Nowlan from CR3 Partners, Brad Mascott from Citizens Bank, Chad Simon from Gordon Brothers, and David Turco from Wingspire Capital.

Mark is a Partner in Choate's nationally recognized Finance and Restructuring Group and serves as the firm's Asset-Based Lending Market Co-Leader. He advises financial institutions and corporate borrowers on a wide range of financing matters, including complex domestic and international transactions, debt workouts and restructurings, asset-based and second- or split-lien facilities, leveraged acquisitions, retail finance, and intercreditor arrangements.

The Discussion begins at 4:00 p.m. at the Boston Marriott Long Wharf.

learn more

Mark D. Silva
Co-Head of Asset Based Lending