Moab v. Macquarie Decision Narrows the Scope of 10b-5 Liability for Securities Litigation Cases

In this episode of our Litigation podcast series, Mike Gass, Chair of Choate's securities litigation practice, and Kristen Perriello, a Principal in the Government Enforcement Group discuss the Supreme Court's significant securities law decision in Macquarie Infrastructure Corp. v. Moab Partners. The decision focuses on whether Rule 10b-5(b) prohibits pure omissions or only half-truths. Mike and Kristen will provide an overview of the case and focus on the legal and practical takeaways arising from the decision.
