Natalie Phillips Receives Distinguished Young Alumni Award

Boston University School of Law's Black Law Student Association (BLSA) presented Natalie Phillips with the Young Alumni Award at its 53rd Annual Gala. The award is given to outstanding recent alumni who have shown a strong commitment to supporting BLSA past their years at BU. This year's Gala took place on April 8th and brought together the BU BLSA community, alumni and distinguished honorees, and concluded with a "passing of the torch" from the current executive board to its next generation of leaders.
