Saige Jutras Oftedal Named Client Strategy Lead for Choate's Finance and Restructuring Group

Choate is pleased to announce that Saige Jutras Oftedal has been named Client Strategy Lead for the Firm's Finance and Restructuring Group.

In this new role, which she will hold alongside her legal practice, Saige will lead the Group's client strategy across its industry teams, working closely with Group leadership to strengthen and grow its client relationships. She will partner with clients to understand and address their institutional priorities. Saige will also direct the Group's market and relationship intelligence. Her appointment strengthens the Group's ability to deliver coordinated, individualized service to its clients.

"We are delighted to see Saige take on this important role. Our clients expect a team that understands their businesses and the markets they operate in, not just their transactions. Saige brings strong experience across the lending market and a genuine commitment to our clients, and in this role, she will lead our efforts to align the full strength of our Finance and Restructuring Group with our clients' priorities."

– John Ventola, Practice Chair of Choate's Finance & Restructuring Group
