

AWARDS & ACCOLADES | 11.07.2024

Sam Rudman Named to Benchmark Litigation's 40 & Under List and Recognized as a "Litigation Star"

Samuel N. Rudman has been named to Benchmark Litigation's 2024 40 & Under – Northeast list and recognized as a "Litigation Star."

Sam, a Partner and co-chair of Choate's Business & Financial Litigation Group, is a first-chair trial lawyer who represents a wide range of clients in connection with their most challenging matters. In recent years, Sam has tried or arbitrated cases arising in a variety of different contexts, including cases concerning alleged breaches of contract and fraud, high-stakes insurance and reinsurance disputes, and various other complex commercial matters. In addition to his recent trial experience, Sam also routinely represents clients in cases arising under the antitrust laws, in class actions, and in regulatory matters.

"I congratulate Sam on receiving this well-deserved recognition, as he has a proven track record for providing Choate's clients with excellent representation both in and out of court," noted Michael Gass, co-chair of the Business & Financial Litigation Group.

Benchmark Litigation's 40 & Under list identifies the best and brightest litigators across the U.S. The vetting process for 40 & Under nominees and Litigation Stars is conducted through the examination of recent casework, extensive interviews with litigators and their clients, and the professional opinion of peers within their jurisdiction or practice area.

Samuel N. Rudman

Head of Business & Financial Litigation