Stephanie Schonewald to Moderate at the 2024 Consero IP Life Sciences Executive Roundtable

Stephanie Schonewald will be moderating the panel, "The Art of Successful Portfolio Management," at the Consero IP Life Sciences Executive Roundtable on March 5, 2024.

The presentation will take place from 9:30 – 10:30 am and will discuss how to manage emerging patent innovations while balancing existing ones to effectively add value to the overall business. Panelists plan to discuss their internal processes for portfolio management, strategies to try and avoid, and what issues may arise in your portfolio in the coming year.

In addition to Stephanie's role as moderator, Brenda Jarrell is a co-chair of the conference.
