Sverica Capital Management Closes $750M Fund VI

Choate represented Sverica Capital Management, a leading growth-oriented middle market private equity firm, in the formation of its sixth private equity fund. Sverica Capital Partners Fund VI exceeded its target, was oversubscribed, and closed at its hard cap of $750M of total limited partner commitments. Sverica will use Fund VI to continue its strategy of investing in companies that are, or have the potential to be, category leaders within their respective industries, and will remain focused on businesses within the technology, business services, healthcare and advanced industrial sectors.
