Synoptek, Sverica Capital Management Portfolio Company, Announces Majority Investment from Quad-C

Choate represented Sverica Capital Management and its portfolio company, Synoptek, in the sale of a majority stake in Synoptek to investment firm Quad-C Management. Synoptek is a leading global business and digital transformation advisory and consulting firm.

Synoptek has experienced significant growth since Sverica's initial investment in 2015. Under Sverica's ownership, Synoptek completed five strategic acquisitions which helped increase the Company's delivery capacity in various geographies and meaningfully expanded its portfolio of services. Sverica will retain a minority position in Synoptek as a result of the transaction.
