

Adin Henderson

ASSOCIATE

617-248-4824 | ahenderson@choate.com

Adin Henderson represents banks, non-bank lenders, and other financial institutions in a range of complex financial transactions, and has experience working with clients across a variety of industries.

During law school, Adin was an Equity Fellow within the Boston University School of Law's Student Affairs office, and served as a student representative on the Faculty Community & Inclusion Committee. He also worked as an extern for Alternative for Community and Environment (ACE).

Representative Engagements

- Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. as agent for a $2.53 billion revolving credit facility and FILO facility to United Natural Foods, the largest publicly traded wholesale distributor of natural, organic, specialty, and conventional food in the United States and Canada.
- Second Avenue Capital Partners in $126 million financing to Valore Capital for the acquisition of Mirai Casting Group, a global automotive casting and engineering platform.
- Second Avenue Capital Partners, as originator, in a $700M warehouse credit facility with Huntington National Bank, and a separate term credit facility with Pathlight Capital.
- Truist Bank, as agent, in connection with a senior secured multi-draw construction term loan facility, the proceeds of which will be used towards the construction of the Novant Health Performance Center, the new practice facility for the Charlotte Hornets.
- Second Avenue Capital Partners in asset-based revolving credit facility and term loan facility to True Religion Apparel, a retail clothing company known for its direct-to-consumer signature premium denim jeans.

Education & Credentials

- Boston University School of Law, JD (2024)
- Boston College, BA (2021)

Admissions

- Massachusetts

Focus Areas

Finance and Restructuring

Acquisitions /
Sponsor Financing
Asset-Based Lending
Junior Capital &
Capital Markets
Restructuring and Bankruptcy
Sports and Stadium
Financing
Utility Financing