

Alison F. Reif

CHAIR, EMPLOYMENT

617-248-5157 areif@choate.com

Alison Reif provides practical and efficient business-oriented counseling and advice on managing all aspects of a company's relationship with its employees. This includes providing counsel on hiring and employment agreements, terminations and RIFs, disability and leave issues, wage and hour compliance and audits, discrimination and harassment investigations, employment and severance agreements, employee handbooks and policies, non-competition, and other post-employment restrictions, independent contractor arrangements, employee classifications, and virtually all other issues facing modern employers.

A seasoned negotiator, Alison specializes in finding workable, real world solutions to accomplish business objectives, avoid legal liability, and remain consistent with a company's culture. She has a nationwide practice, with a sweet spot of mid-sized companies. Alison is routinely called on to advise international companies, particularly in the United Kingdom and Canada, who are starting operations in the United States and require assistance in navigating local employment laws. Alison has also successfully represented companies in more than fifty lawsuits brought by their employees, involving a wide variety of claims.

Alison also regularly represents management teams and private equity firms in connection with employment-related aspects of transactions, including executive employment agreements, restrictive covenants, equity agreements, due diligence and purchase agreements.
