

April C. DeLuca

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

617-248-4763 adeluca@choate.com

April DeLuca works with clients of Choate's Government Enforcement & Compliance Group. She represents individuals and corporations including pharmaceutical companies involved in complex litigation, government investigation, and/or internal investigation.

Prior to joining Choate, April worked as a student attorney at the Boston University Compliance Policy Clinic.

Representative Engagements

- Representing global pharmaceutical company in federal False Claims Act investigation.
- Represent individual in connection with FCPA investigation related to former employer.
- Conduct workplace investigation on allegations of harassment.
- Represented Chief Technology Officer of major public company in an SEC investigation into disclosures relating to large scale cybersecurity breach.

Education & Credentials

- Boston University School of Law, JD (2021) Staff Member, Review of Banking & Financial Law
- Boston University, BA (2016) magna cum laude

Admissions

- Massachusetts
- U.S. District Court, Massachusetts

Focus Areas

Litigation and Investigations

Business and Financial Litigation
Government Enforcement, Investigations & Compliance