

Benjamin A. DuBois

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

617-248-4013 | bdubois@choate.com

Ben DuBois is a member of Choate's Intellectual Property Litigation group. He represents a broad range of clients in commercial litigation and intellectual property matters, including patent infringement, trade secret, and contract disputes.

During law school, Ben was a judicial intern for Chief Judge Beryl A. Howell in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. He was also a legal intern in the Fraud Section of the Criminal Division at the U.S. Department of Justice, and a patent law research assistant to Professor Dmitry Karshedt.

Admissions

- Massachusetts

Representative Engagements

- Counsel for multinational biotechnology company in biosimilar patent litigation under the Biologics Price Competition and Innovation Act (BPCIA).
- Represent biotechnology company in federal court trade secret litigation related to mental health therapies.
- Successfully opposed motion for preliminary injunction and appeal; obtained dismissal of breach of contract action for commercial real estate firm.
- Trial counsel for global software company in state court trade secret litigation.
- Represented individual in connection with Foreign Corrupt Practices Act investigation related to former employer.

Professional & Community Involvement

- Ben provides pro bono services related to immigration and Social Security through the Lawyers Clearinghouse

Focus Areas

Intellectual Property

IP Litigation

Litigation and Investigations

Business and Financial Litigation

Insurance and Reinsurance

IP Litigation