

Benjamin A. DuBois

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

617-248-4013 | bdubois@choate.com

Recognition

Ben DuBois is a member of Choate's Intellectual Property Litigation group. He represents a broad range of clients in commercial litigation and intellectual property matters, including patent

Representative Engagements

Counsel for multinational biotechnology company in biosimilar patent litigation under the Biologics Price Competition and Innovation Act (BPCIA).
 During law school, Ben was a judicial intern for Chief Judge Beryl A. Howell in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. He was also a legal intern in the Fraud Section of the Criminal Division at the U.S. Department of Justice, and a patent law associate assisting Professor Dmitry Korotkiy with therapies.

- Successfully opposed motion for preliminary injunction and appeal; obtained dismissal of breach of contract action for commercial real estate firm.
- Trial counsel for global software company in state court trade secret litigation.
- Represented individual in connection with Foreign Corrupt Practices Act investigation related to former employer.

Publications and Presentations

- "Mind the Gap: Ratification of the U.N. Convention Against Discrimination in Education as a Solution to Singapore's Educational Gender Gap," author, 53 Geo. Wash. Int'l L. Rev. 503, 2022

Professional & Community Involvement

- Ben provides pro bono services related to immigration and Social Security through the Lawyers Clearinghouse

Education & Credentials

- The George Washington University Law School, JD (2021) With Honors; Editor-in-Chief, The George Washington International Law Review
- Vanderbilt University, BA (2015)

Admissions

- Massachusetts

Focus Areas

Litigation and Investigations

Business and Financial Litigation
 Insurance and Reinsurance
 IP Litigation