

Brian G. Frazier

TAX DIRECTOR

617-248-4064 | bfrazier@choate.com

Brian Frazier joined Choate in 2013 as a Tax Accountant in the Wealth Management Group's Tax Department.

Brian has more than 10 years of experience providing tax services to high net worth individuals. Prior to joining Choate, Brian was a Senior Tax Accountant with Cowan Bolduc Doherty, LLC, then Friedman, Suvalle and Salomon, PC. At those firms, he worked with clients and advisors to provide tax services, including the preparation of individual, corporate, partnership, foundation and trust income tax returns.

At Choate, Brian has continued his focus on tax preparation and planning for high net worth individuals. Additionally, his responsibilities include the preparation of income tax returns for a wide range of entities including revocable and irrevocable trusts, investment management accounts and charitable foundations.

Brian graduated from Merrimack College with a BS in Business and a concentration in Accounting. As an Enrolled Agent, he specializes in taxation and has unlimited rights to represent taxpayers before the IRS. He has successfully passed the CPA exam, and is in the process of obtaining his license. Brian is currently enrolled in the Carroll School of Management's Masters in Finance program at Boston College.

Focus Areas
Choate Wealth