

Elliott Wolf

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

646-663-8762 elwolf@choate.com

Elliott Wolf is an Associate in Choate's Litigation and Investigations group. His practice focuses on complex commercial litigation. Elliott represents clients in connection with a broad range of business disputes and commercial controversies in federal and state courts. He works with companies and other clients on litigation matters involving high-stakes commercial issues and assists clients through all phases of the litigation process.

Focus Areas

Litigation and Investigations

Business and Financial Litigation

Representative Engagements

- A publicly traded generic pharmaceuticals company and certain of its officers and directors in securities lawsuits brought on behalf of a class of investors as well as opt out lawsuits by institutional investors.
- Individual sellers and founders of a private company in defense against claims of fraud and breach of contract by the Korean conglomerate purchaser of their business.
- Successful representation of homeowners in arbitration action for claims of breach of contract against contractor for numerous construction defects resulting in award for homeowners.
- Former professional athlete in pursuing defamation claims against government officials and media personalities for claims against him.
- Partner in private company who provided largest capital contribution in pursuing claims for breach of fiduciary duty by other partners in their attempt to freeze him out.
- Individual investor in claims for breach of contract against partners in fund for failing to provide the equity grant they promised for capital contribution.
- Social services organization in defending claims of negligent hiring and supervision for employee's wrongful acts.

Education & Credentials

- Georgetown University Law Center, JD (2020)
- Brooklyn College of the City University of New York, BA (2016) summa cum laude

Admissions

- Florida
- New York