Jennifer Fenn, Co-Chair of Choate's Finance & Restructuring Group, is a recognized leader both in and out of the office, and is routinely an integral part of some of Choate's most high-profile transactions. Jen represents lenders in a broad range of complex financing transactions for both banks and institutional investors, focusing on asset-based transactions with an emphasis on the retail market. Jen's ability to execute the full lifecycle of a variety of deal structures – including originations, distressed work, DIP financings, and emergence financings – has impressed clients and peers alike.

Beyond her client work, Jen has a proven commitment to developing and mentoring the next generation of talent. As one of the Firm's two Hiring Partners, Jen has played an active role in Choate's hiring process for years.
