

Katherine Quezada

ASSOCIATE

617-248-5016

kquezada@choate.com

Katherine Quezada works with clients in Choate's Litigation Department. She represents a variety of clients in investigations, commercial disputes, and intellectual property matters, including patent litigation.

While in law school, Katherine served as a Student Attorney in the Access to Justice Clinic where she successfully represented several clients in civil litigation disputes and conducted an award winning study on the impact of a neutral legal curriculum on law students. She was also Co-President of First Generation Professionals, and was on the Board of Women of Color Collaborative.

Prior to law school, Katherine worked as a paralegal for several agencies and organizations, including the New York County District Attorney's Office and Sanctuary for Families.

Focus Areas

Litigation and Investigations

Business and Financial Litigation
IP Litigation

Admissions

- Massachusetts
- U.S. District Court, Massachusetts

Representative Engagements

- Biogen Inc. and Biogen MA Inc. v. Sandoz Inc. et al. (D. Del.): Counsel for Biogen in biosimilar patent litigation under the Biologics Price Competition and Innovation Act (BPCIA) concerning TYSABRI® (natalizumab).
- Radius Health, Inc. and Ipsen Pharma S.A.S. v. Orbicular Pharmaceutical Technologies Private Limited (D. Mass.): Counsel for Radius and Ipsen in Hatch-Waxman patent litigation relating to TYMLOS® (abaloparatide).
- Advise and represent universities and education nonprofit in relation to third-party subpoenas in an ongoing federal antitrust suit.
- Represent insurer in arbitration concerning complex coverage dispute.

Professional & Community Involvement

- Member, Boston Bar Association
- Member, Choate's Associates' Committee