

Rebecca Brownell

ASSOCIATE

617-248-4731 | rbrownell@choate.com

Rebecca Brownell works with clients in Choate's Litigation Department. She represents a variety of clients in investigations, commercial disputes, and intellectual property matters, including patent litigation.

While in law school, Rebecca served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Christopher K. Barry-Smith at the Massachusetts Superior Court, Middlesex County. Prior to law school, she worked as a litigation legal assistant for a local law firm. She has also interned in the Office of U.S. Senator Kirsten E. Gillibrand.

Recognition

- High Honors Recipient, Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court Pro Bono Honor Roll (2024)

Representative Engagements

- Represent global pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies in patent litigation.
- Defend healthcare and hospital systems in Department of Justice False Claims Act investigations.
- Represent insurance companies in complex coverage disputes.
- Counsel for refugee referred through the Political Asylum / Immigration Representation (PAIR) Project and successfully went to trial on his behalf in Boston Immigration Court.

Publications and Presentations

- "Strengthening Schools' Abilities to Combat Cyberbullying in Denying Students' First Amendment Challenge – Doe v. Hopkinton Pub. Schs., 19 F.4th 493 (1st Cir. 2021)," author, Suffolk Journal of Trial & Appellate Advocacy, 2023

Education & Credentials

- Suffolk University Law School, JD (2023) cum laude; Associate Managing Editor, Moot Court Honor Board / Suffolk Journal of Trial & Appellate Advocacy; Best Oral Advocate Award
- Dartmouth College, BA (2018)

Admissions

- Massachusetts
- U.S. District Court, Massachusetts

Focus Areas

Litigation and Investigations

Business and Financial Litigation
Government Enforcement, Investigations & Compliance
Insurance and Reinsurance
IP Litigation

