

Sheron Korpus

CO-HEAD OF BUSINESS & FINANCIAL LITIGATION

📞 646-632-9135 ✉ skorpus@choate.com

Sheron Korpus is a Partner in Choate's Litigation and Investigations group and Co-Head of the Business and Financial Litigation Practice. As a first-chair trial lawyer whom clients trust to handle their most challenging matters, he represents a wide range of clients in connection with complex commercial disputes. He has tried cases in federal and state courts, as well as before arbitration panels, across the United States, including matters involving commercial, financial, securities, antitrust, bankruptcy, and intellectual property disputes.

In addition to his trial experience, Sheron routinely represents clients in high-stakes business litigation and other complex commercial controversies. He litigates matters across a broad range of industries and has extensive experience handling multibillion-dollar disputes involving financial institutions, public and private companies, investment firms, and life sciences businesses. Sheron also regularly advises clients in connection with bankruptcy-related litigation, securities matters, antitrust disputes, and other sophisticated business conflicts.
